Clergy and delegates to gather for Nov. 4
Diocesan Convention

Response to climate change and a commitment to developing new ministry with elders are among the issues coming before delegates and clergy at the upcoming Diocesan Convention.

The convention will also hear recommendations from the team that has been working over the past year to organize the implementation of the new mission strategy that the convention adopted last year. And, it will vote on the $8.8-million budget proposed for 2018 and elect alternate deputies to next summer's General Convention of the Episcopal Church, among other business.

The 232nd annual Diocesan Convention takes place on Saturday, Nov. 4 at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul (138 Tremont Street) in Boston. A link to the live Webcast will be posted at www.diomass.org/diocesan-convention-2017, where all convention materials also are posted.

Follow along on social media using #DioMassCon2017.

“A Future and A Hope”:
Barbara C. Harris Center
Sunday is Dec. 3

This year, as a part of the Barbara C. Harris Camp and Conference Center’s “A Future and A Hope” annual fund campaign, congregations of the diocese are invited to observe Dec. 3 as Barbara C. Harris Center Sunday.

Ways to participate in Barbara C. Harris Center Sunday include taking up a collection to bolster the camp’s annual fund (bulletin inserts and donation envelopes are available); including the Barbara C. Harris Center in the Prayers of the People; making an announcement from the pulpit; and inviting a member of the board or staff to be present for a service or forum.

Read an invitation to participate from Bishop Alan M. Gates and find more information here.

NOTES:

- The Diocesan Cycle of Prayer for the current year, from Advent 2017 through Pentecost season 2018, is now available online here. The Anglican Cycle of Prayer is available here.

- Grace Chapel in Brockton will celebrate its seventh anniversary as a strategic ministry in the Diocese of Massachusetts with a Prayer and Healing Service on Friday, Nov. 17 at 7 p.m., and a Thanksgiving Service on Sunday, Nov. 19 at 10 a.m., at the First Evangelical Lutheran Church (900 Main Street) in Brockton. The theme for the anniversary celebration, “The Helper Will Come,” is from John 14:16-18.

“God has always been mindful of the helpless and has promised to help. Grace Chapel is grateful for all the help and the resources we have received from people and organizations inspired by God, in the last seven years, and we are confident that God’s help will remain available for us and for all who call on God’s holy name,” the Rev. Moses Sowale, Grace Chapel’s missionary, said in extending an invitation to the diocesan community to join in celebrating the Brockton ministry’s anniversary milestone.

Grace Chapel began with a small group of people in 2010 before the closing of St. Paul’s Church in Brockton. The ministry obtained space at First Evangelical Lutheran Church, where it has its offices and holds its weekly Sunday services. Along with the Sunday services, Grace Chapel has an active youth program, The Brigade Youth Program, and a women’s ministry, The Abigail’s Project. Both programs are open to youth and women in the community alongside youth and women of Grace Chapel.

CHURCHWIDE:

- Episcopalians are invited to save the dates for the next Evangelism Matters conference, to be held March 15-17, 2018, for anyone excited to learn about sharing and growing loving, liberating, life-giving relationships with God. Hosted this year by St. Paul's Church in Cleveland Heights, Ohio, Evangelism Matters is a churchwide event co-sponsored by the Episcopal Church's Evangelism Initiatives Team and Forward Movement.

Presiding Bishop Michael B. Curry will address the conference, and a diverse team of evangelism leaders will lead plenary sessions and workshops. Many sessions will be Webcast live and available for download, and individual and satellite group participation is welcomed. Registration and sponsor sign-ups are available online here.

TRAINING & LEARNING:

The program offers a means for teaching English effectively while involving the entire parish through carefully facilitated social interactions designed to cross the cultural gaps that can seem so very wide in today's national climate.

Available to teach English in Metrowest in January? On Sunday, Dec. 3, 11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. (includes light lunch), the hub starts ESOL teacher training to orient potential teachers to English Plus policy and procedure, and prepare participants to follow up on their own schedule with online teacher training and coaching.

There is no cost to attend these events, but advance registration is requested to assist with planning.

FOR INFORMATION/TO REGISTER: The Rev. Lori Mills-Curran, Metrowest Mission Hub-ProGente Connections (508-873-1881 or lmillscurran@diomass.org).

- Registration is open for the 2017 Middle School Retreat, Friday-Sunday, Nov. 17-19, taking place at the Barbara C. Harris Camp and Conference Center in Greenfield, N.H. The retreat's theme is "An Ocean of Possibilities," and participants will explore how they are formed by their culture and by their faith for action in the world.

Led by the Diocesan Youth Council (DYC), the weekend features small group workshops, indoor and outdoor games, worship to get everyone moving and thinking, lively music and some much needed time away from the rush of everyday routines in order to pay more attention to the Spirit of God in our lives. Scholarship support is available, as is bus transportation. Registration closes when capacity is reached, or on Nov. 13. Register online here. A recruiting flyer is available for download, here.

- Building on the success of recent youth mission trips to Las Fronteras, the borderlands of Arizona and Sonora, Mexico, the Office of Youth Ministry is now offering the experience to a broader range of young people in 2018. The new program, open to current 9th and 10th graders, will include several mandatory organizational meetings ahead of the trip along with meetings after the trip to connect the new understandings gained with activities ongoing around the diocese. The focus of the program will be helping young people put their faith into action. Details and the online application are now available here. Applications are due Dec. 28. Space is limited.
- Join Bishop Gayle E. Harris and the congregation of St. Luke's-San Lucas Church in Chelsea on Saturday, Dec. 16, 6:30-9 p.m., for Las Posadas, a traditional Advent event at which those gathered will trace Mary and Joseph's traveling search for shelter. This is a bilingual and multicultural celebration with processions, music, food and hospitality. As the group celebrates this well-known story from the Christian tradition, it will hold close in heart and mind the serious situation of modern-day refugees seeking shelter. The event is free, but advance registration, available online here, is important to ensure there will be enough food.
