Ecumenical retreat helps make the "Creation Connection"

"Making the Creation Connection: Christians and Environmental Justice," a day-long retreat led by the Rev. Margaret Bullitt-Jonas, will offer participants a three-part framework toward transforming hearts and minds about Christians' environmental responsibility and inspiring bold and faithful action on climate and environmental issues. With seven Christian judicatories, including the Diocese of Massachusetts, and the Massachusetts Council of Churches coming together to sponsor the retreat, it is an ecumenical opportunity for Christian denominations to unite and explore their role and responsibility as God's people to care for creation. The intention for this event is both to help Christians connect their faith with environmental justice, and to connect Christians with other Christians who care for the planet.

The retreat takes place on Saturday, Nov. 11, 9:30 a.m.-4 p.m., at the Rolling Ridge Retreat and Conference Center in North Andover. Registration can be found online at www.rollingridge.org. Cost is $48 per person, including lunch. A 10 percent group discount is available for three or more from one congregation.

CHURCHWIDE:

- In a "Word to the Church" statement issued Sept. 27 from their meeting in Fairbanks, Alaska, the Episcopal Church's bishops urge Episcopalians to look "for the connections among race, violence of every kind, economic disparity and the environment. Then, after reflecting in prayer and engaging with Scripture, partner with people in common commitment to the healing of God's world.
"God calls us to listen to each other with increased attention. It is only with unstopped ears and open eyes that our hearts and lives will be changed. It is through the reconciling love of God in Jesus and the power of the Holy Spirit that we and the earth itself will be healed."
The full statement is available, in English and Spanish, here.

- Episcopal Relief & Development continues to work with dioceses affected by the extraordinary weather events and natural disasters of recent weeks. For congregations wishing to help, ER&D has a general hurricane relief bulletin insert available here. Contributions to ER&D's hurricane relief fund can be made online here. ## Upcoming youth ministry events:

Questions about these events may be directed to the Rev. H. Mark Smith (617/482-4826, ext. 215 or hmsmith@diomass.org).

- Interested to find out what others are doing in youth ministry? The diocesan Office of Youth Ministry is co-hosting a “Local Conversations” forum to encourage building more relationships among youth workers across the diocese as they continue to imagine new models of ministry for our time. The program takes place on Thursday, Oct. 12, 6:30-8:30 p.m. (with dinner), at Christ Church (149 Court Street) in Plymouth.

The gathering is for full-time and part-time youth ministers, paid and volunteer, clergy and lay, seasoned and freshly anointed. Advance online registration is requested, available here, so that there will be enough food.

- Registration is open for the 2017 Middle School Retreat weekend, Friday-Sunday, Nov. 17-19, taking place at the Barbara C. Harris Camp and Conference Center in Greenfield, N.H. Retreat participants this year will explore how they are formed by their culture and by their faith for action in the world.

Led by the Diocesan Youth Council, the weekend features small group workshops, indoor and outdoor games, worship to get everyone moving and thinking, lively music and some much-needed time away from the rush of everyday routines in order to pay more attention to the Spirit of God in our lives. Scholarship support is available, as is bus transportation. Registration closes when capacity is reached, or on Nov. 13. Register online here.

- New youth mission trip program in the works: Building on the success of recent youth mission trips to Las Fronteras, the borderlands of Arizona and Sonora, Mexico, the diocesan Office of Youth Ministry is now designing a program to offer the experience to a broader range of young people in 2018. The new program, open to current 9th and 10th graders, will include several mandatory organizational meetings ahead of the trip along with meetings after the trip to connect the new understandings gained with activities ongoing around the diocese. The focus of the program will be helping young people put their faith into action. Applications will be available soon, but for more information now, contact the Rev. H. Mark Smith (see above left).

This training provides the needed licensing to be a Eucharistic Visitor in the Diocese of Massachusetts.

- A Clergy Safe Church Refresher Training is being offered on Saturday, Oct. 14, 8:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m., at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul (138 Tremont Street) in Boston. Continental breakfast and lunch will be provided. There is no fee for the training, but pre-registration is a must. Register online here.

It is expected that all clergy canonically resident or licensed in the Diocese of Massachusetts will attend a Safe Church Training once every three years. The diocese is committed to healthy church environments and needs the shared wisdom and experience of everyone to make them so.

A Safe Church Training open to all will be held on Saturday, Oct. 28, 8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m., at the Church of the Holy Spirit (525 River Street) in Mattapan. Register online here.

- The Society of St. John the Evangelist (980 Memorial Drive) in Cambridge will offer a workshop, “Celebrating the Sacraments of Healing,” led by Brother Jonathan Maury, SSJE, on Saturday, Oct. 14, 9 a.m.-12:15 p.m. “The rite of anointing the sick with oil, or the laying on of hands, by which God’s grace is given for the healing of spirit, mind and body” (Book of Common Prayer, p. 861) is increasingly incorporated into Sunday and weekday liturgies. This practicum is for parish clergy and lay persons ministering under their supervision.

Additionally, those ministering with young adults may wish to share word of SSJE’s upcoming retreat: “Spiritual, not Religious?” for people in their 20s and 30s, to be offered Friday-Sunday, Oct. 20-22 and led by Brother Jim Woodrum, SSJE. He writes, “In these modern times people are more apt to identify as ‘spiritual’ rather than ‘religious.’ But what does that mean for those of us who feel called to follow ‘the Way’ of Jesus?” The retreat will explore this question through teaching, discussion and prayer.

Visit www.ssje.org for workshop registration.
