Inviting Forming Sending Serving

Advent 2010

Dear Friends,

We've all the experience of people who have been laid low in one way or another, who were aware that people were praying for them, who report that it made a difference. They could feel the support. I wonder if our institutions have the same experience, as others pray for them in this Diocesan Cycle of Prayer?

Let's try an experiment.

Right now, before you get distracted, look up your parish, or chaplaincy, or organization in this schedule, and note it on your calendar, both your personal calendar and your organization's calendar.

A few weeks before you appear in the cycle, ask others what you would wish to be prayed for (you might recruit someone to help do this, as it will get others involved, always a good thing), so when the incredibly faithful Jane Lyons writes to ask for your prayer requests you can tell her. (Remember that Jane has a ministry each week of writing and asking for specific prayer requests and then leaving them in a voicemail message that can be accessed by calling (617) 482-4826, ext. 698, so others can be helped to pray for specific needs or concerns.)

The week before you appear in the cycle, let people know (in any way that makes sense) that others throughout the diocese will be praying for you all. If you've asked for any specific prayers, share what these are.

And then pay attention. What happened the week you were prayed for? Did you notice any difference, what was it like?

God's peace,

Special Intentions

As a special ministry, Jane Lyons contacts each church a couple of weeks before we pray for them on the Cycle of Prayer, to ask what specifically we all might be praying for when that church appears on the list. She then records those prayers on our Cycle of Prayer hotline.

You can access this hotline by calling 617-482-4826, extension 698.
