

All Saints Episcopal Church Chelmsford, Massachusetts

Overview

All Saints Episcopal Church in Chelmsford, Massachusetts seeks a collaborative, joyful, and creative partner to serve as our next Director of Music. This leader will help to develop and bring to light the musical gifts of our community. Working with people across ages to celebrate the fullness of who God is calling us to be. This partner will bring a clear love of music and community to the planning and execution of our musical endeavors. Finally successful candidates will have creative hearts as we live into the challenge of moving ancient traditions into a new expression.

While we are seeking someone with all the requisite skills; musicianship, liturgical knowledge, and organ proficiency, we are looking for someone that fosters and builds community. Musical leadership that is rooted in the care and fellowship of the participants should be a primary value. Finally we are looking for someone that wants to be deeply connected to the community in order to deliver music that inspires and transforms.

Duties and Responsibilities.

- Promote an environment of spiritual growth and development
- Plan music in conjunction with the Rector and Parish Administrator
- Rehearse with Children and Adult Choirs during the program year
- Coordinate with our Bell Choir on musical offerings and schedules
- Plan and execute special services and performances
- Schedule coverage for vacations or planned absence
- Arrange and schedule maintenance and repairs on all instruments.
- Participate in staff meetings and development
