Gather a team for “Brave Conversations”
Spring Learning Event

Register by Feb. 26 here.

This year’s diocesan Spring Learning Event—Saturday, March 3, 9 a.m.-4 p.m., at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul (138 Tremont Street) in Boston—will engage the need for “Brave Conversations” among people with different perspectives, passions and experiences. Congregations and worshiping communities are invited to gather a group and come together with others to acquire and share techniques and inspiration for establishing the church as a gracious place for dialogue on challenging topics and for expanding the possibilities for reconciliation and transformation.

All are welcome. Register online by Feb. 26 here.

Participants will have the opportunity to experience a gracious dialogue process focused on the topic of race; learn how to provide hospitality and prepare people for dialogue, not debate; learn about inviting people into initial dialogue to achieve mutual understanding through deep listening; and access curriculum resources for continued learning. The event aims to equip participants with new and expanded skills that they can use in their churches and communities.

The Kaleidoscope Institute will facilitate the day’s program, adapted specifically for use in congregations and communities in the Diocese of Massachusetts.

CHURCHWIDE:

- Presiding Bishop Michael B. Curry has invited Episcopalians to join the more than 25 partners presenting the Good Book Club, a churchwide program for reading the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles during the Lent and Easter seasons in 2018. The Good Book Club readings begin the Sunday prior to Ash Wednesday, Feb. 11 and finish on Pentecost, May 20. Find resources at www.goodbookclub.org.

- The publishing and media ministry Forward Movement surveyed 12,000 people from more than 200 Episcopal congregations and has released a report on its findings, which includes analysis of the varying degrees of spiritual vitality and cultures of discipleship found in Episcopal congregations. Find an infographic of key findings here. The full report is available here.

- The Episcopal Church's Office of Government Relations has produced a new curriculum on civil discourse and invites congregations to use it to better understand and practice civil discourse, particularly as it relates to politics, policy and legislation. The curriculum is available for download here.
- Presiding Bishop Michael B. Curry has called for an increased commitment to the two remaining Episcopal Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). He invites Episcopalians "to deepen our participation in Christ's ministry of reconciliation by dedicating offerings at observances of the Feast of Absalom Jones to support the two remaining Episcopal Historically Black Colleges and University (HBCUs): St. Augustine's University in Raleigh, N.C., and Voorhees College in Denmark, S.C." The two institutions of higher education were founded in the late 19th century as an Episcopal Church missionary venture. "These schools bring educational, economic and social opportunity to often resource-poor communities, and they offer many blessings into the life of the Episcopal Church," Curry said in his appeal.

Donations can be made online here; bulletin inserts are available here.
