“From Lamentation to Action”: MA bishops urge March 14 & 24 prayer & action

The bishops of the dioceses of Massachusetts and Western Massachusetts jointly issued on March 1 a call “From Lamentation to Action.” In it they urge a Day of Lamentation on Wednesday, March 14, in response to a call for unity in prayer on that day from the Bishops United Against Gun Violence coalition. Liturgical resources for use in special or regularly scheduled services are available here. The Cathedral Church of St. Paul (138 Tremont Street) in Boston will incorporate a Litany of Lamentations into the 10 a.m. service of Holy Eucharist and the 12 p.m. Santa Misa that day. Christ Church Cathedral in Springfield will hold a Service of Lamentation at 5:30 p.m. All are welcome.

The bishops also encourage participation, locally and nationally, in the Saturday, March 24 March For Our Lives. Episcopal City Mission is in the process of determining whether there is sufficient interest to book a charter bus to the Washington, D.C., event and will decide by March 10. Find more information and register commitment here.

The search process is now formally underway for three regional canons to serve in the Diocese of Massachusetts. The job description for the three regional canons is being distributed churchwide and is available on the diocesan Web site here.

Each of the regional canons will serve a geographic area of the diocese encompassing four deaneries and will have three primary responsibilities: lay leadership support and development in congregations; transition ministry with congregations and clergy; and clergy wellness and clergy family support. The three regional canons will live and work within their respective geographical regions and serve as members of the bishop’s senior leadership team.

In solidarity with those taking part in the Washington, D.C., March For Our Lives, more than 100 sister marches are taking shape in locations across the country, including Boston, Northampton, Springfield and Worcester. In Boston on March 24, the Cathedral Church of St. Paul (138 Tremont Street) will offer hospitality and gathering space, beginning at 10 a.m., in partnership with the Diocese of Massachusetts and its B-PEACE antiviolence campaign and Episcopal City Mission.

Those interested in marching with other Episcopalians should plan to meet at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul by 11:30 a.m. Organizers also hope to offer youth-led trainings or other organizing activities, including a B-PEACE postcard-writing campaign to legislators, corporate decision-makers and other stakeholders. Details will be posted here as they emerge. For more information on activities at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul on March 24, or to offer help with planning, contact the Rev. H. Mark Smith (617-482-4826, ext. 215 or hmsmith@diomass.org).

The deadline for making application for one or more of the regional canon positions is Tuesday, April 10. Bishop Alan M. Gates, working with a search advisory team, hopes to announce the new canons in late spring. He envisions that they will begin their work in the diocese by mid to late summer.

Bishop Gates is grateful for the feedback he received at the three listening sessions that preceded the formal opening of the search. About 200 people attended those sessions, held in January at Christ Church in Andover, Christ Church in Plymouth and St. Mary's Church in Newton Lower Falls.
