NEWS and INFORMATION for the clergy and leadership of The Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts 138 Tremont Street, Boston, MA 02111 / www.diomass.org (617) 482-4826 / (617) 482-5800 / FAX: (617) 451-6446

Last call: Diocesan Convention nominations, resolutions due Sept. 6

Plan to attend a preconvention forum in October The deadline for submission of all Diocesan Convention materials—nomination papers, resolutions, proposed amendments to the diocesan constitution and canons, required reports from diocesan committees and requests for display space—is Friday, Sept. 6 by 5 p.m. Find more information and materials at www.diomass.org/ diocesan-convention-2019. Online registration opens in late September; information and additional materials will be sent to delegates and clergy in early October.

This year's convention will take place on Saturday, Nov. 2 in Boston at the Back Bay Events Center (180 Berkeley Street) and Emmanuel Church (15 Newbury Street).

Pre-Diocesan Convention forums in October offer an important opportunity for learning and discussion about the issues and business to come before the convention, including resolutions and the proposed budget. All are welcome; voting members of the convention are especially encouraged to participate. Forums are scheduled to take place from 7 to 9 p.m. on:

- Tuesday, Oct. 8 at Christ Church (149 Court Street) in Plymouth;
- Wednesday, Oct. 9 at Trinity Church (124 River Road) in Topsfield;
- Wednesday, Oct. 16 at St. Peter's Church (320 Boston Post Road) in Weston; and
- Thursday, Oct. 17 at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul (138 Tremont Street) in Boston.

End gun violence: B-PEACE calls everyone to public action at Smith & Wesson The B-PEACE for Jorge Campaign of the Diocese of Massachusetts, in partnership with the Diocese of Western Massachusetts and the Pioneer Valley Project, invites participation in a public witness outside the corporate headquarters of Smith & Wesson (2100 Roosevelt Avenue) in Springfield on Friday, Sept. 13 at 4 p.m.

Bishop Alan M. Gates plans to participate. One hope for this action is to have as many people present as possible, joining voices to ask gun manufacturers to be part of the solution to end gun violence.

B-PEACE is organizing bus transportation from Boston to Springfield; register in advance here. For more information, contact the campaign organizers directly at bpeace@ssypboston.org.

Resource Day set to inspire formation, evangelism & discipleship via "Way of Love" practices

Online registration is open here.

New Title IV intake officer in place

#MeToo response materials available in Spanish and English "The Way of Love: Practices for a Jesus-Centered Life" will be featured at the diocesan Resource Day on Saturday, Sept. 28, 9:30 a.m.-3 p.m., at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul (138 Tremont Street) in Boston. Every congregation is invited to gather a group and get ready for this inspiring program devoted to learning how the Way of Love practices can be used, individually and in congregations, for formation, evangelism and discipleship. Participants will also enjoy opportunities for peer-to-peer conversation, sharing and networking, and for building relationships through the ministries of the diocese and its congregations. Everyone is welcome, and a group discount is available. Find details and register online by Wednesday, Sept. 25 here.

Share the invitation: A publicity graphic for use in spreading the word about Resource Day through congregational newsletters, bulletins, websites and social media is available online here. FOR INFORMATION: Martha Gardner, Office of Networking and Formation (617-482-4826, ext. 403 or mgardner@diomass.org).

The Rev. Ema Rosero-Nordalm has been appointed to serve as a diocesan intake officer as part of the Episcopal Church's canonical (Title IV) clergy disciplinary process, and will bring particular attention to Spanish-speaking communities in this work. She joins Starr Anderson and the Rev. Thea Keith-Lucas as diocesan intake officers in place to receive formal complaints of misconduct by active or retired clergy, which, if material and substantial, lead to a disciplinary process.

Rosero-Nordalm is a deacon and former Latina missioner for the diocese dedicated to creating women's ministries and offering training in leadership and racial reconciliation. Prior to her ordination, she taught Spanish language and culture at schools and universities in Boston before joining the faculty at the Foreign/Modern Languages Department at Boston University for 22 years.

More information about the Title IV clergy disciplinary process is availabe here.

To contact a diocesan intake officer:

•Starr Anderson (978-352-2147 or starrkanderson@gmail.com); •The Rev. Thea Keith-Lucas (617-458-1253 or revthea@gmail.com);

•The Rev. Ema Rosero-Nordalm (617-921-3490 or erosero@bu.edu). In addition, the diocesan #MeToo Task Force has created an online storytelling form, available in English and Spanish, at www. diomass.org/MeToo, as well as a poster detailing the means for relating and reporting accounts of sexual misconduct in the church. Laminated copies of the poster have been mailed to congregations; additional posters, in either English or Spanish, are available by contacting Jennifer Garrett, Assistant for Congregations and Events, at jgarrett@diomass.org or 617-482-4826, ext. 421. 3

Find the event on Facebook here . FOR INFORMATION: Cathedral Church of St. Paul (617-482-5800, ext. 221 or kvetiac@diomass.org).
	• Events nationwide this year are marking 400 years since en- slaved Africans were first landed in North America. Locally, the Massachusetts Council of Churches is coordinating "May We Forever Stand," an ecumenical worship service at which people of faith will gather to honor ancestors, commemorate 400 years of black resiliency and pray for an end to systemic racial injustice. All are welcome. The service takes place on Friday, Sept. 20, 7:30 p.m. , at the Greater Framingham Community Church (44 Franklin Street) in Framingham. An afternoon preaching class, "Preaching Black Resiliency," with the Rev. Dr. Leslie Callahan of St. Paul's Baptist Church in Philadelphia, will be offered earlier that day, at noon, at People's Baptist Church (134 Camden Street) in Boston. Class seating is limited; find ticket and full event information here . FOR INFORMATION: Massachusetts Council of Churches (617-523- 2771 or council@masscouncilofchurches.org).
	• Friends of the Masakane Trust invite the diocesan community to "Music, Mission and More: Empowering Women and Preschool Children in South Africa," an afternoon program of music and stories from congregations involved in mission in South Africa. It takes place on Sunday, Sept. 22, 4 p.m. , at the Church of the Holy Spirit (525 River Street) in Mattapan. Free-will offerings and donations for teacher training and school supplies will be much appreciated; refreshments and raffle items will be available following the program. All are welcome. FOR INFORMATION: Kathy Bombara (knewton2017@rcn.com) .

• Creation Care Season is observed in the Diocese of Massachusetts beginning with the Feast of St. Francis, Oct. 4 through the last Sunday after Pentecost, Nov. 24. An active group of volunteers comprises the Creation Care Justice Network and is looking to expand and to connect interested individuals and congregations with resources. The network invites participation in a brief online survey, available here, which will help it support efforts to bring climate justice and action to communities of faith. FOR INFORMATION: Dawn Tesorero, Creation Care Justice Network (rangerdawn@gmail.com).

• Episcopal City Mission (ECM) invites clergy members, lay delegates and interested lay leaders to participate in its annual corporation meeting on Saturday, Oct. 12, 9 a.m.-1 p.m., at St. Cyprian's Church (1073 Tremont Street) in Roxbury. Each year ECM members gather to conduct business and learn how to partner in the work of God's transforming love in the world. Canonically resident and licensed clergy working in the Diocese of Massachusetts are members of the corporation of ECM.

The Annual Meeting is an opportunity to pray with one another, highlight the work that is happening in communities and offer feedback about ECM's Episcopal Engagement plan. ECM staff also will offer tools to support action for racial and economic justice. FOR INFORMATION: Episcopal City Mission (617-879-6304 or info@episcopalcitymission.org); www.episcopalcitymission.org.

• Retired clergy of the diocese, as well as their spouses and surviving spouses, are invited to gather at one of two luncheon pro-grams to be hosted this fall by the chaplains to retired clergy: Tuesday, Oct. 8 at St. Peter's Church (320 Boston Post Road) in Weston and Tuesday, Oct. 15 at St. David's Church (205 Old Main Street) in South Yarmouth. Each will take place from 10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. RSVP to the Rev. Skip Windsor: tuckernuck2@comcast.net. FOR INFORMATION: David Ames, Office of the Bishop Suffragan (617-482-4826, ext. 445 or dames@diomass.org).

• The Cathedral Church of St. Paul (138 Tremont Street) invites everyone to the opening night of the exhibition "ABRAHAM: Out of One, Many" on Sunday, Oct. 27 at 4 p.m. Three Middle Eastern contemporary visual artists from the faith traditions of Islam, Christianity and Judaism have each created five paintings that interpret Abraham's life and faith journey for us today, serving as a guide toward creating cultures of peace, harmony, justice and healing—all as descendants of a shared heritage.

The cathedral church will host docent-led tours and other events related to the topic of Abraham and his descendents throughout the exhibition, which will be open through Dec. 6. To learn more about this exhibit visit: www.oncaravan.org/abraham. FOR INFORMATION: Cathedral Church of St. Paul (617-482-5800, ext. 221 or kvetiac@diomass.org).

Upcoming youth ministry events:

Questions about these events may be directed to the Rev. H. Mark Smith (617/482-4826, ext. 215 or hmsmith@ diomass.org). • Episcopal Church grants for racial reconciliation, evangelism and new worshiping communities: Applications opened on Aug. 13 for Episcopal Church "Becoming Beloved Community" grants. Applications are due Sept. 13. Allocated in 2018 by General Convention Resolution D002, the grant funds are intended for "programmatic activities aimed at addressing the issue of racial reconciliation." "Seed" grants of up to $10,000 and "Impact" grants of up to $20,000 are available. Find application information here.

Oct. 1 is the application deadline for the next round of Epis-copal Evangelism Grants, designed to fund local and regional evangelism efforts. The program, which began in 2017 as a result of the 2015 General Convention's increased investment in evange-lism, awards up to $2,000 for an individual congregation and up to $8,000 for multichurch, diocesan and regional collaborations. The application and more information are available online here.

Applications are also being accepted, on a rolling basis, for grants for Episcopal dioceses and mission developers who are envisioning, planning or growing new worshiping communities and missional enterprises. The grants are part of a $2.5-million initiative funded by the 2018 General Convention that seeks to strategically support emerging Episcopal Church communities and that aims to build partnerships within and beyond the church, expand the church's language of ministry and create new ways for the church to engage the people of God. Four categories of grants are available. Find application information here.

• Online registration is now open for the 2019 Middle School Retreat (Friday to Sunday, Nov. 15-17), taking place at the Barbara C. Harris Camp and Conference Center in Greenfield, N.H.

Led by the Diocesan Youth Council, the weekend features small group workshops, indoor and outdoor games, worship to get everyone moving and thinking, music by a live band and some muchneeded time away from the rush of everyday routines in order to pay more attention to the Spirit of God in our lives. Scholarship support is available, as is bus transportation. Registration closes when capacity is reached, or on Nov. 10. Register online here.

• Recruiting young people for 2020 Faith in Action Las Fronteras Pilgrimage: This program for young people in grades 9-12 will begin with an organizational meeting in January, and will include several site visits around the diocese to see faith in action. At each site, participants will explore issues of security and hospitality, stranger and neighbor, privilege and disadvantage, discipleship and servant leadership, all while participating in community service projects and developing a community of faith and support among themselves. The program will culminate in the group's pilgrimage to the U.S.-Mexico borderlands in August 2020. FOR INFORMATION: The Rev. H. Mark Smith (617-482-4826, ext.
