

Diocesan Cycle of Prayer

The Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts

Advent 2021

Through the End of the Season after Pentecost 2022

Dear Friends,

"Members one of another." This is how Paul describes the followers of Jesus, and this is our theme for diocesan convention this fall. How thankful I am for our interdependence in Christ. I truly might not have made it through the many challenges of the last year without my friends and colleagues in this diocese. Your wisdom is a gift. Your courage is a gift. And most especially, your prayers are a gift.

For generations, our Diocesan Cycle of Prayer has helped us live into our call to be members one of another. I encourage you to make praying for the communities and groups listed here on their appointed Sundays part of your regular round of corporate prayer.

If there is something in particular for which your congregation or ministry would like prayers, contact Cathedral Administrator Brad Rothrock about a week before your appointed Sunday. He will post your specific request on the cathedral's Facebook page, and we will add your request to our prayers at our weekday morning prayer services here at the cathedral.

Note that the Cycle of Prayer is arranged by deanery. We hope you will name the deanery in your prayers, as it is another level of connection through which we bless one another.

This Cycle of Prayer is important. And it is just the beginning. As you use it, let it prompt you to creatively and proactively connect with the wider church through prayer and thanksgiving.

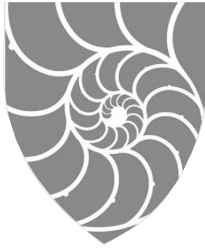

Faithfully,

Amy McCreath

Dean, Cathedral Church of St. Paul
