

All Saints' Day Services: Friday, November 1, 2013

St. John the Evangelist, Boston – 6pm

“The Church of St John the Evangelist, in conjunction with the MANNA (“Many Angels Needed Now and Always”) ministry of the Cathedral Church of St Paul, specially invites all participants in Diocesan Convention to join in a Festal Eucharist for the Feast of All Saints, followed by a reception and reading by authors of The Pilgrim. The service will begin at 6:00pm on Friday, November 1.

“The Pilgrim is a monthly literary publication produced entirely by members of the homeless community of Boston and edited by James W. Parker. Previous readings by Pilgrim writers have been a smash hit at Brookline Booksmith. The Pilgrim is a project of MANNA, a ministry among those who live on the streets, in shelters, or who have recently found housing. Subscriptions to The Pilgrim will be available at the reading. Mocktails and snacks will be served. There is no charge for the reading, and all are welcome.

The Church of St John is located at 35 Bowdoin St., Boston, 02114. St. John's is a five-minute walk from Government Center Station (Green and Blue Lines) or Park Street Station (Green and Red Lines), and a ten minute walk from Charles/MGH (Red Line), State (Orange Line), or North Station (Green and Orange Lines). We suggest parking at the Boston Common underground garage or One Beacon Street.

Trinity Church, Copley Square, Boston – 12:15pm

Fridays at Trinity Concert - Friday, November 1 12:15 pm - 12:45 pm

Enjoy this weekly series of midday concerts featuring innovative programs by organ recitalists and ensembles from across the US and abroad.

No charge for admission, but we invite a donation of $10.

Questions? Contact Janet Stone, jstone@trinitychurchboston.org, 617-536-0944 x212

Church of the Advent, Boston – 12:15pm and 6:30pm

30 Brimmer St Boston, MA 02108

Friday, November 1 – Eve of All Souls

12:15 pm – Said Requiem Mass

6:30 pm – Solemn Requiem Mass