Mission Strategy Implementation Organizing Team appointments announced

Three new appointments have been made to the phase four membership of the Mission Strategy Implementation Organizing Team as it continues its work since last year's Diocesan Convention. On June 28 Bishop Alan M. Gates appointed the Rev. Joe Robinson of Christ Church in Cambridge to serve as co-chair with the Rev. Nancy Gossling of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul in Boston. Robinson succeeds Win Treese of St. Elizabeth's Church in Sudbury, who stepped down as co-chair in late May. Two current members of Diocesan Council, the Rev. David Fredrickson of Christ Church in Plymouth and Gail Campbell of St. John's Church in Beverly Farms, also have been appointed to serve as Diocesan Council's representatives on the team. All members of the phase four team will complete their service at Diocesan Convention in November.

The appointments were announced in a July 26 letter from the co-chairs, sent by e-mail to diocesan and parish leaders. Find the full text of the letter online here.

FOR INFORMATION: The Rev. Nancy Gossling (617-482-4826, ext. 204 or ngossling@diomass.org) or The Rev. Joe Robinson (617-876-0200 or jor@cccbridge.org).

NOTES:

- Episcopal Divinity School (99 Brattle Street) in Cambridge is holding a book sale Monday-Thursday, Aug. 7-10 and Monday-Thursday, Aug. 14-17, 9 a.m.-2 p.m. each day, in the Tyler Room of the Burnham Building. General reference books will be available, as well as books on history, social science, education, literature, law, science, technology and bibliography. Episcopal Divinity School is moving to Union Theological Seminary in New York City, and the Union and Columbia University library have extensive holdings in these areas. A selection of prints is also available. Visit the online event page here.

- The Church Pension Group will host an overnight “Planning for Wellness” conference for members of the clergy and their spouses and partners, to be held Wednesday-Thursday, Oct. 4-5 (starting at 9 a.m. on Wednesday and concluding at 1 p.m. on Thursday) at the Holiday Inn (31 Hampshire Street) in Mansfield. The conference will focus on managing finances; improving well-being through exercise, nutrition and stress management; and maximizing Church Pension Group plan benefits, including information about plan revisions that will become effective in January 2018.

The fee to attend is $75 for clergy members or $100 per couple, which includes the overnight stay and meals. (There is a reduced rate for those staying off-site).

A similar program for church lay employees and their spouses and partners will be offered at no cost on Tuesday, Oct. 3, 9 a.m.-4 p.m., at the Holiday Inn, Mansfield.

Child and elder care costs for all participants can be subsidized up to a certain amount. To register or learn more, visit www.cpg.org/pfw or contact admissions@cp.org or 888-274-2828.

- Episcopal City Mission’s 2017 Annual Meeting of the Corporation takes place on Saturday, Oct. 14, 9 a.m.-12:30 p.m., at St. Cyprian’s Church (1073 Tremont Street) in Roxbury. The annual meeting is intended for all members of the Episcopal City Mission corporation—specifically, Episcopal City Mission parish delegates and all canonically resident clergy working in the Diocese of Massachusetts. Visit www.episcopalcitymission.org and join ECM’s e-mail list for more details.

CHURCHWIDE:

- The House of Deputies Committee on the State of the Church is asking church leaders to complete two online surveys by Aug. 18: one about the Church Pension Fund and the other about the Episcopal Church’s social justice work. The data that the committee collects from the surveys will be used to prepare its required report on the state of the church for the 79th General Convention in 2018. (More information about the committee’s work is available here.)

The survey about the Church Pension Fund, available in English here and Spanish here, is designed to collect responses from lay and ordained people who work in the church regardless of whether they participate in the Church Pension Fund or the Church Medical Trust.

The survey about social justice work, available in English here and Spanish here, aims to gather information about the ways that dioceses and congregations are involved in advocating a fairer and more just society.

FOR INFORMATION: Committee on the State of the Church members Laura Russell, Diocese of Newark (LARussell@legal-aid.org) or The Rev. Evan Garner, Diocese of Alabama (evan@stjohnsdecatur.org).

- The Episcopal Church Advisory Council for the Stewardship of Creation is accepting applications for the latest round of grants for local faith-based projects for mitigating climate change and safeguarding the integrity of creation. Recommendations for grants up to $10,000 will be made to the Episcopal Church's Executive Council for its October 2017 meeting, with final grant decisions to be announced in November and funds released in December. More information is available here. The application deadline is Aug. 20.

Upcoming youth ministry events:

Questions about these events may be directed to the Rev. H. Mark Smith (617/482-4826, ext. 215 or hmsmith@diomass.org).

- Applications for the 2017-2018 Diocesan Youth Council (DYC) are now available. Find all instructions for completing applications here. All applications are due Wednesday, Aug. 16. Members of the Diocesan Youth Council are students in the 10th-12th grades who act as the official youth presence at Diocesan Convention. They also work throughout the year to plan and run diocesan youth events and strive to make the church a nurturing Christian community that encourages the spiritual growth of young people.

- Applications for the 2017-2018 Youth Leadership Academy (YLA) program are now available. YLA is a yearlong program for young people entering 9th and 10th grades. The program is based on three pillars: leadership development, spiritual formation and service in community. Beginning in the fall, participants learn new skills, challenge themselves as community organizers and put their discipleship in action—all while having a lot of fun. Through YLA, participants create and lead a self-chosen project to connect their home parish and the wider community, and at the end of the year, the group raises money for and goes on a mission pilgrimage. Applications, available here, are due Wednesday, Sept 6.

TRAINING & LEARNING:

- The annual diocesan fall Resource Day will be on hiatus this year. A variety of other resources and training opportunities will be available throughout the fall, including a short-day program on strategic planning, business practices and real estate, to be offered by the Congregational Consultants. More information will be available soon.

FOR INFORMATION: The Rev. Karen Montagno, Congregational Resources and Training (617-482-4826, ext. 413 or kmontagno@diomass.org).

- The annual diocesan Stewardship Leaders Training will be held Saturday, Sept. 9, 9 a.m.-1 p.m., at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul (138 Tremont Street) in Boston. Join new and experienced leaders from across the diocese as they “Journey to Generosity”—The Episcopal Network for Stewardship’s narrative series on which this year’s training will once again be based. The topics for the day will include training in principles and tools, stewardship narratives, and time to compare notes with other congregations in the diocese. This no-cost event will be helpful for those who need a jumpstart to their fall stewardship campaign or those who need a refresher on fundamentals and best practices. Please come to pray, learn and share. Register here.

FOR INFORMATION: Lynd Matt, Office of Development (617-482-4826, ext. 515 or lmatt@diomass.org).

- Faith-Rooted Organizing with Alexia Salvatierra: New Englanders are invited to this overnight workshop to develop skills and practices in advocating in the public sphere for our most vulnerable neighbors, Friday-Saturday, Sept. 15-16 at the Barbara C. Harris Camp and Conference Center in Greenfield, N.H.

Led by the Rev. Alexia Salvatierra, author of Faith-Rooted Organizing: Mobilizing the Church in Service to the World and a professor at Auburn Seminary in New York City, this workshop is sponsored by the Episcopal Church’s Office of Social Justice, the Maine Episcopal Network for Justice and the Episcopal Diocese of New Hampshire.

Topics to be covered include: theological framework for faith-rooted organizing and social justice advocacy; strategies to engage fellow Christians and community leaders; and next steps for action on specific public policy issues in New England.

Participation is limited to 40 people. Find more information and register online here.

FOR INFORMATION: Heidi Shott, Episcopal Diocese of Maine (hshott@episcopalmaine.org).

- Upcoming fall Safe Church Training sessions include Saturday, Sept. 23 at the Church of St. John the Evangelist (410 Washington Street) in Duxbury (register online for Duxbury here) and Saturday, Oct. 28 at the Church of the Holy Spirit (525 River Street) in Mattapan (register online for Mattapan here). Each runs from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

This training is designed to increase awareness regarding sexual misconduct and abuse of power, to outline steps toward preventing abuse, to offer ways to intervene when misconduct occurs and to equip anyone in a position of parish leadership with ways of healing and rebuilding the body of Christ.

The training is required of all clergy, diocesan employees and congregational employees. It is also highly recommended for all leaders and volunteers working in a congregation on a regular basis.
